Dear Readers:

Great things are happening! You know it by reading the newsletters. Thanks for staying informed. We will impact Guyana together.

The Pen Pal Ministry has officially begun. Follow the Pen Pals link through the Living Water 414 website if you would like to encourage a Guyanese brother, sister or family. Some are email; but most are snail mail. Email david@LivingWater414.org with any questions you have.

Coming soon is the Adopt-A-Church Outreach. This opportunity does for a congregation what the Pen Pal Ministry does for the individual or family. Your congregation can provide experience and outreach to a small struggling church in Guyana. Call (859) 314-8638 if interested.

Summer campaign: Already two trips to Guyana this year and trip #13 is merely several weeks away. A 10-day crusade will be in Moruca Village led by my friend, John Langham, and Jerry O. Davidson’s Amerindian Missions.

Guyana Christian University students will graduate on Sunday, July 3 in the hinterland city of Culvert City/Lethem. A proposed trip to Monkey Mountain by 4x4 is being planned. And then the crusade to Wakenaam is awaiting a team; details on the back page.

These events (Moruca, Lethem, Monkey Mountain & Wakenaam) will take four weeks. Pray for these efforts and all involved.

The Special Report contained details about April's Wakenaam Island Crusade, but brief statements are due here as well. God repopulated the postdiluvian world with eight souls, and it took only eight people (three from the States and five Guyanese) to revive the dead Wakenaam church. Prior to our work, they hadn't met for over two years. God doubled the size of the congregation during the crusade with three baptisms. And thirteen were present on the first Sunday assembly after we left. The pilot light has been lit, but it must grow. Will you commit one week to help this struggling church?
